

Talking Real Estate with Steve Slicker

Hi folks,

Welcome to 2010, a brave new world or much of the same? Ask me in December and I will let you know. So did you enjoy Christmas and New year? Still on holiday mode? Yeah, me too!

Short and sweet today, got the gym, have to run off the mince pies and wine and get used to doing stuff again, so I thought a brief reminder of what I do.

I sell houses and I would like the opportunity to speak to you if you are thinking of selling your home, this will help you make the decision to move or not, I may be able to find you your dream home, I may not but I will be completely honest at all times. I will not necessarily tell you what you want to hear, I refer to the last sentence.

The selling season is already starting, the optimum selling months are traditionally February, March and April. So now is the right time to prepare. I know the little darlings are at home, you may not be back from holidays yet, I know its such a drag but if you fail to plan you plan to fail. (Good grief, too many seminars last year)

I look forward to speaking to you soon and don't worry folks regular columns will be back to normal in two weeks.

If you are thinking of selling your home please call me on the numbers below or contact me via email steve@steveslicker.com alternately fill in your details on my website www.steveslicker.com

Kind regards,

Steve Slicker
